FR. JACK'S CHUCKLE

Little Johnny was basically a good boy but he had a problem with his temper. He had his bouts of anger that his mother kept telling him "Johnny, you are making it difficult for people to love you." So on New Year's day, he made a resolution: "I am not going to get angry anymore." He went to the back garden and, piled together a heap of earth, put a cross over the heap, and wrote on the cross "RIP" and solemnly declared, "This is the grave of old Johnny. Mom, today I am the new Johnny." As the January days rolled by, Johnny was faithfully practicing his resolution; he never got angry. People easily loved him. One day however, poor Johnny was in a bad mood and bashed up his baby sister. After the incident, his sister went to the old little Johnny's grave, replaced the "RIP" to "He is not here, he is risen!"
